

Holy Family Centennial Class Graduates In Church, June 3

Commencement exercises for Holy Family's fifty-sixth annual graduating class will be held Friday, June 3, at 8:00 p. m., in Holy Family Church. The 1960 graduating class has the distinction of being designated as the Centennial Class since Holy Family Church celebrates its one hundredth anniversary this year.

Right Reverend Monsignor John F. Danz will deliver a special address for the occasion and will award diplomas to the following graduates: Betty Dudley, Carolyn Krell, Helen Mele, Betty Dene Thompson, Sharon Tussey, J. D. Browne, David Dickenson, Stephen Fox, Donald Frailie, Roger Hensley, Joseph Martin Hood, Kelsey McCullough, Matthew Schwab, Russell Smith, and James Stephenson.

Monsignor Danz will be assisted by Reverend Joseph Dunne, and Reverend Ralph Hartman, assistants at Holy Family Parish. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament will follow the address and the awarding of the diplomas.

Music for the occasion will be provided by the graduates who will sing the traditional Benediction hymns. Organ accompaniment will be supplied by Sister Mary Herman, C.D.P.

The Baccalaureate Mass will be celebrated Sunday Morning, May 29, at 8:00 a. m. The seniors will attend Holy Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body attired in cap and gown.

On Sunday morning, June 5, the entire parish will honor the centennial graduates with a breakfast given in their honor. The fifteen grads will be guests-of-honor at this affair sponsored by the Saint Anne Altar Society. Various members of parish societies will speak and the graduates will be formally introduced into the post-grad society of Holy Family Parish life.

Having successfully completed four years of high school, the graduates eagerly await graduation with feelings of both joy and sadness.

ORBIT

Holy Family High will pay its last social tribute to the 15 seniors who will graduate June 3 with the annual High School Prom to be held May 25.

The Prom will be preceded by a banquet given in the gaily decorated gymnasium. Right Reverend Monsignor John F. Danz, pastor, will give the principal address before the juniors and seniors, accompanied by their parents.

Holy Family High, Ashland, Ky.

Prom are David Dickenson and Sharon Tussey. David and Sharon will be crowned by the President and Vice-President of the Junior Class. The social will last from 8:00 to 11:30.

At the moment the Juniors are in feverish activity preparing for the event and whispering about a still-to-be announced theme.

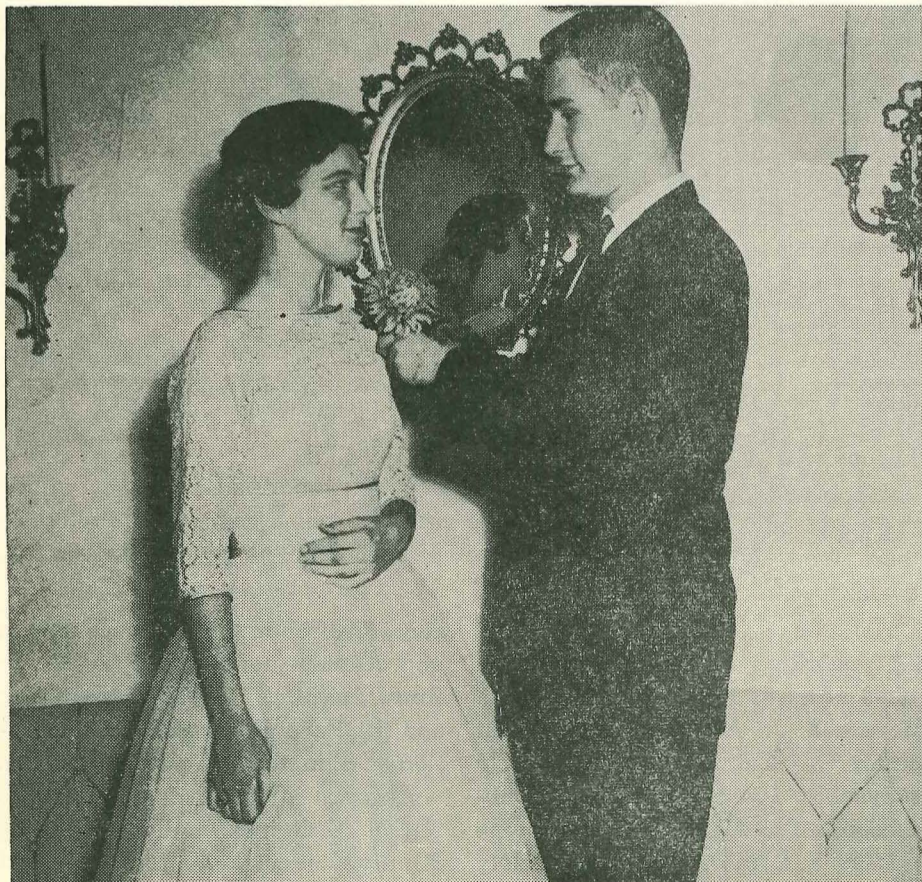

Sharon Tussey, Jim Stephenson, Joe Hood, and Betty Thompson are searching for their energy peaks in this humorous scene from the Senior class play, "The Little Dog Laughed."

The Little Dog Laughed To See Such Sport

Holy Family's Senior Class presented its class play May 13, in the school gymnasium. The play was entitled "The Little Dog Laughed" and was the story of the problems thrown on the Huntington family when Laurie, a Sophomore at college majoring in psychology, comes home for the summer.

The play was a three-act comedy with Helen Mele, Joe Hood, Jim Stephenson and Betty Thompson playing leading roles. Other senior members of the cast included Sharon Tussey, Carolyn Krell, Betty Dudley, J. D. Browne, Buzzy Smith, and Roger Hensley. Six other girls, in-

"Setting down in writing is a lasting memory"—Fielding.

The Sisters of Divine Providence came to Holy Family parish, for the first time to take up their teaching duties in September of 1947. This year also brought Reverend Edward S. Haney as assistant pastor, and also witnessed the launching of the scholastic career of the class of 1960. Ten members of that first grade class are graduating this year, having spent twelve years at Holy Family, namely: J. D. Browne, David Dickenson, Betty Dudley, Joe Hood, Carolyn Krell, Kelsey McCullough, Russell Smith, James Stephenson, Betty Thompson, Sharon Tussey and Steve Fox.

The remaining "grads" of this 1960 class joined the class later. Don Frailie, Roger Hensley, Helen Mele, and Matthew Schwab moved to Ashland and became students at Holy Family sometime after 1947.

The first day at school three members of the class expressed their feelings with tears, and they were not tears of joy. David Dickenson, Kelsey McCullough and Steve Fox needed comfort from Sister Mary Stella that morning. Sister Mary Stella was our first grade teacher. We will always think of her in the kindest of ways.

Our first principal, Sister Elizabeth Marie, a gracious and very religious lady, was a shining example for us. The principal to follow, Sister Mary Herbert, was one of the most wonderful and saintly people we have ever known.

Sister Mary Auxilia, who prepared us for our first Holy Communion, made a deep impression on all of us.

Our music teacher, Sister Mary Herman, a most gifted and talented one, has struggled along with us for many long years. I'm sure Our Lord will reward her for her efforts.

We can't forget Sister Mary Estelle, a very vivacious and pleasant person, who was always willing to lend a hand to any endeavor.

We will always be indebted to Sister John Joseph, who very ably heads our art department, and whose latest service to our class was assisting in some needed props for the class play.

Sister Amabilis' personal appeal and her ability to deal with the problems of high school students has marked her as a true friend and leader.

Our present principal, Sister Mary Barbara, and our Science teacher, Sister Bernard Theresa, are comparatively new but they have also taken their part in shaping our lives.

We are most appreciative of our contact with our late pastor, Monsignor Declan Carroll and our present pastor, Monsignor John F. Danz.

Father Raymond Ryan, a most amiable and pious priest and a friend of all of us, along with Reverend Joseph Dunne, and Reverend Ralph Hartman, who have taught our religion classes, will always have our gratitude.

Another person who, though new as a teacher, has left a lasting and forceful impression is Mr. John P. Gossett, our coach and history teacher.

Yes, teachers are very important people. It has taken us twelve years to realize it and you probably won't believe it, but, gee, thanks, Teach!!

The junior and senior girls of Holy Family are attending weekly classes in Home Nursing. Above, Mrs. Chaffins, the instructor, and Lynda Boehnlein, with the help of Dolores Brislin, demonstrate the proper method of caring for a patient.

Jack McGuire, former student at Holy Family School, will be ordained to the priesthood on July 11, 1960.

Former Graduate To Become Priest

The Reverend John J. McGuire, a 1951 graduate of Holy Family High School, will be ordained a priest at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, June 11, at the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption in Covington by the newly-consecrated Most Reverend Richard Henry Ackerman, C. S. Sp., Bishop of the Diocese of Covington.

The future Father McGuire was ordained a deacon in September at St. Patrick College, Maynooth, Ireland, where he has completed four years of theological training. He will arrive in Ashland within the next few days from Ireland.

The Reverend Mr. McGuire, who is known as "Jack" to his friends in Ashland, is a son of Mrs. Sara E. McGuire of 4332 Ridgeway Avenue, and the late Mr. Carl L. McGuire. Jack was accepted as a student for the priesthood in the Diocese of Covington by the late Most Reverend William T. Mulloy, former Bishop of the Diocese, and will be assigned to duties in the Diocese soon after ordination.

The 27-year-old seminarian received his first four years of training at Saint Mary College, Saint Mary, Kentucky. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in philosophy from Saint Mary in 1956.

Mr. McGuire also attended Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio, before entering the seminary.

While in Ireland, the Reverend Mr. McGuire has traveled throughout Europe. He was a visitor to Lourdes during the centennial celebration of the appearance of the Blessed Virgin there, and has traveled to Rome twice.

His first Solemn High Mass will be celebrated Sunday, June 12, at 10:30 a. m. at Holy Family Church. Reverend J. A. Browne, assistant pastor of Saint Patrick Church, Maysville, Kentucky, will be subdeacon at this Mass. Father Browne is also a former graduate of Holy Family High School. Reverend Edward S. Haney, pastor of Saint Law-

MUSIC STUDENTS RATE SUPERIOR

Piano and choral students of Holy Family High School were among the many who participated in the annual State Music Festival at Morehead, Kentucky, this year. Joan Galvin and Carolyn Krell rated superior for a duo. Francois Wycliff, who played a solo, rated superior also. Billie Sue Fowler rated excellent for her solo. Joan Galvin and Joe Laborde also played solos and received ratings of good.

The girls' chorus sang "Green Cathedral" and "O Bone Jesu" for which they received a rating of fair.

Other special selections, all of which were rated good, included "Mighty Like a Rose," sung by Helen Mele, Barbara Mele, Carolyn Krell, and Jane Krell. "Roll on River" was sung in three parts by Francois Wycliff, Don Frailie, Carolyn Krell, Jane Krell, Beverly Hahn, Terrie Jean Tierney, Betty Dudley, Helen Mele, Joan Galvin, Shiela Stephens, and Mary Sailer. Freshmen members of the Glee Club sang "Sleep Kentucky Babe." They were: Margaret Gallion, Joan Galvin, Terrie Jean Tierney, Beverly Hahn, Shiela Stephens, Michele Smith, Brenda Conley, and Francie Browne.

GIRL'S STATE DELEGATES SELECTED

Mary Sailer and Sandra Brislin have been delegated by the faculty to represent Holy Family at the 1960 Girl's State.

These two girls will go to the University of Kentucky for one week in June where they will learn about the government of a state by lectures and actual practice and participation. There will be a skit night, a splash party, and reception night when the girls will have a chance to meet the state officers of the 1960 Girl's State.

Mary and Sandy will be sponsored by two organizations here in Ashland, which will pay the expenses for this trip.

When the girls return they will be asked by the organization to tell them of their experiences at Girl's State.

rence Church in Greenup, Kentucky, and chaplain at Our Lady of Bellefonte Hospital, Ashland, Kentucky, and the Federal Correctional Institution at Summit, will assist as deacon.

An open invitation is extended by Father McGuire's family to all Holy Family students to attend the first Mass and join in the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice.

Y.C.S. OFFICERS

These Seniors, left to right, Carolyn Krell, Buzzy Smith, Helen Mele and Steve Fox, met in September with Fr. Dunne to discuss the plans for the school Y.C.S. These Seniors have passed along their knowledge to the new officers.

Never a dull moment with "Birdie" around, individual and different.

TROPHY WINNERS

In this familiar picture we see the boys who were especially honored at the Holy Family Athletic Banquet held Sunday, March 20, 1960, in the gym of Holy Family School. Buzzy Smith received his trophy for being the best defensive player of this year's team. Jim Stephenson walked away with two trophies: best free throw average, and best rebounder. Joe Hood, with no doubt in Coach Gossett's mind, was the "easiest player to coach." Mike Barber, who won last year's Catholic Athletic Award, is seated near J. D. Browne who received the award this year, along with a smaller trophy for best offensive player.

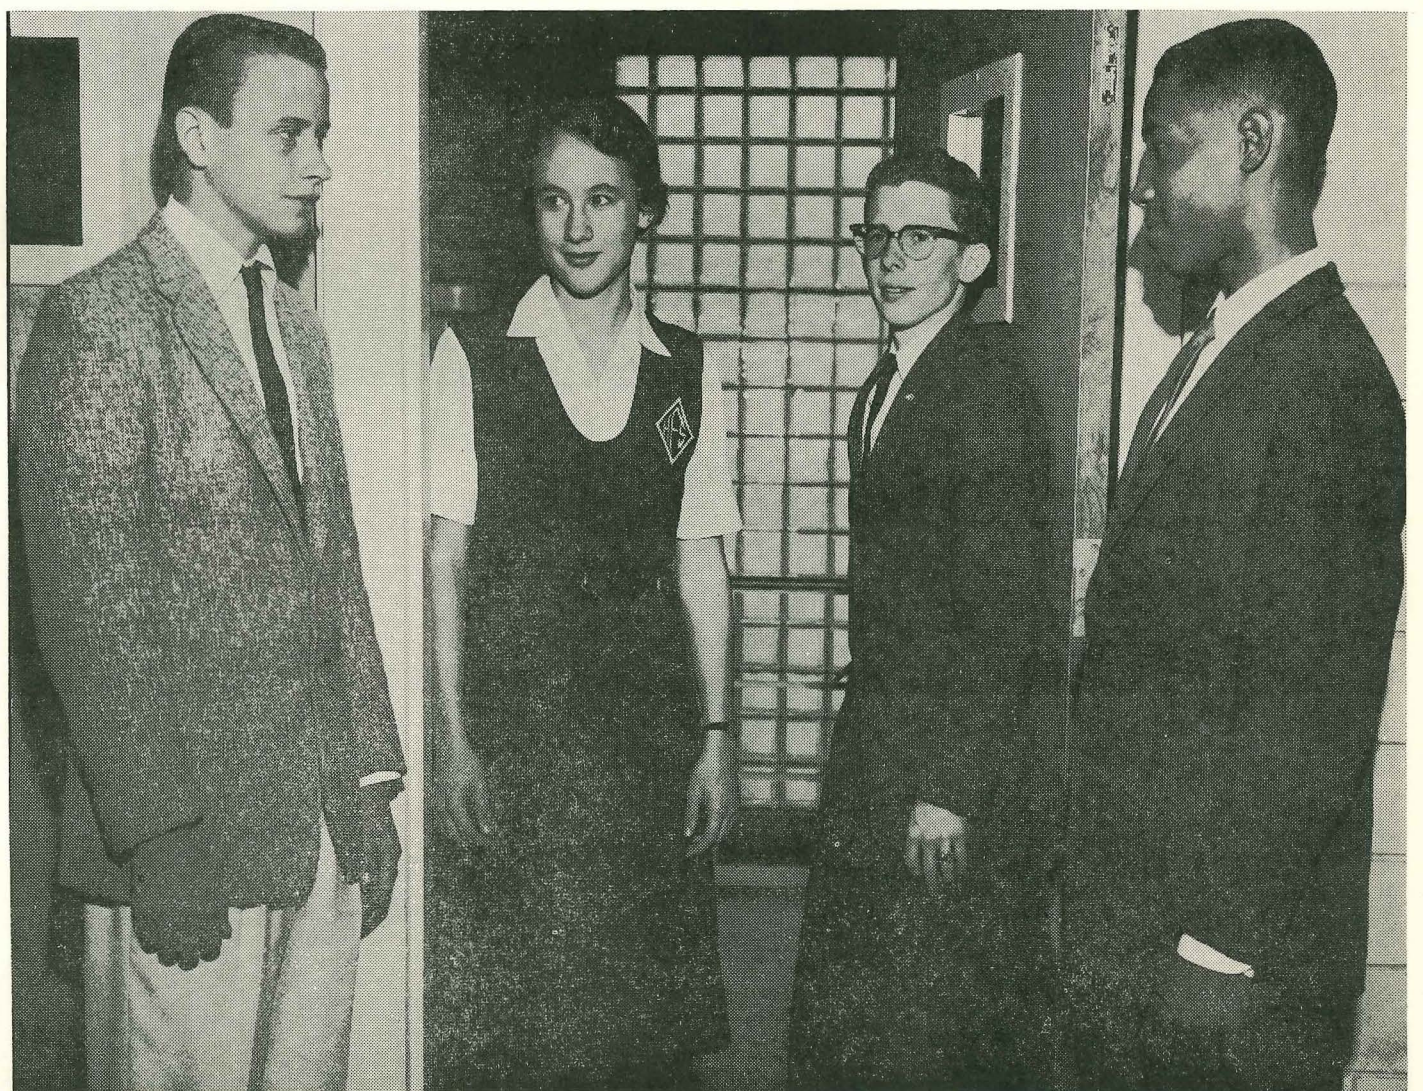

MAY CROWNING

Senior Betty Thompson crowned the Blessed Virgin at the May Procession, Sunday, May 1, attended by Juniors Janet Campbell and Loretta Gallion. Train-Bearer was Theresa Renfroe, and Crown-Bearer was Mark Meinhart, both first-graders. The remaining Senior girls, Helen Mele, Betty Dudley, Sharon Tussey, and Carolyn Krell presented a yellow rose.

CLASS OFFICERS

Crystal Ball Reveals Future

As I gaze into my crystal ball I see many familiar faces . . . ah yes! It's Holy Family's class of '60'.

I see Roger Hensley and two others in a space ship headed for Mars. Roger made history when he piloted the first non-stop solo flight between the Earth and Mars.

Donald L. Frailie II, the first of Roger's passengers, was recently appointed ambassador to Mars by Stephen Fox, President of the United States.

The second passenger, J. Matthew Schwab, plans to open another branch of his world famous "Schwab Business College" on Mars.

Meanwhile back on Earth, Miss Betty Dudley has recently gained national prominence for her work as the interior decorator of the year. Miss Dudley just redecorated the presidential mansion. Oh yes, by the way, the "White House" which was traditionally white for generations, is now pink!

In another part of the United States (Hollywood to be exact), the celebrated actress, Miss Helen Theresa Mele, is rehearsing for her role in James G. Stephenson's new movie, "Myrtle Beach, U. S. A." In this movie J. G. has achieved the perfect balance between romanticism and realism, said Miss Mele. She also added that she believed that she would be even greater in this role than she was in "The Little Dog Laughed," the play in which she made her debut.

Notre Dame still remains top team in the nation. They have won 167 games since Joseph Hood, president, appointed J. D. Browne head coach. Coach Browne attributes the team's success to the high goal he has set for them. He intends to have the number of games won equal his weight. That should keep the team busy for another year or so!

Meanwhile in Paris, the fabulous designer, Russell Roy Smith III (better known as Smith of Paris) is giving another style show. It has been said that this will be the greatest of his many showings.

Kelsey McCullough has just returned to the U. S. from one of his daring expeditions to darkest Africa. Kelsey now has quite a large collection of rare birds and animals.

Detroit is about to announce a new car, designed and tested by Miss Betty Thompson. It is the Red Corvet Station Wagon. (Guaranteed to take anything on two wheels.)

David Dickenson is now Walt Disney's head artist. David makes all of the coats-of-arms for Mr. Disney's movies. He also draws the most important rats and garbage cans, to say nothing of all the spider webs he has made.

People are coming from all over the universe to see the fabulous new Krell Building. Miss Carolyn Krell recently built it to hold her well-known style shop.

Last but not never least, Miss Sharon Tussey is busy perfecting a new song. Miss Tussey has written such all time favorites as "Shemmie, Shemmie, Coco-Dog" and "Oh! That Red Red Hair." Her latest song is to be entitled "When I Get Out."

As the crystal ball begins to fade, I see Hensley's space ship returning to have broken speed records in space flight. In order to save time, Mr. Hensley explained that Ambassador Frailie was shot from the plane in a capsule which would disintegrate in the atmosphere of Mars.

Last Will And Testament

We, the 1960 Graduating Class, leave the following behind us as we depart:

I, J. D. Browne, will my "uncanny" ability to get hurt at the wrong time to Joe Fitzgerald.

I, David Dickenson, will my webbed feet to Frank Burns.

I, Betty Dudley, will my height to Lynda Boehnlein.

I, Stephen Fox, will my place at the organ to "Gaylord" Gardner.

I, Don Frailie, will my limited ability to teach Algebra to Francie Browne.

I, Roger Hensley, will my masculine physique to "Cheyenne" Mulvaney.

I, Joe Hood, will my driving ability to Mary Pat McClintock, because she is such a good back seat driver.

I, Carolyn Krell, will my shiny uniform to the girl's rest-room because they need a larger mirror.

I, Kelsey McCullough, will my ability to avoid trouble to Baxter Carr.

I, Helen Mele, will my "sweet" perfume to Sandy Brislin.

I, Matthew Schwab, will my "unlimited" vocabulary to John Messick.

I, Russell Smith, will my dancing ability to Charlie Hackworth.

I, James Stephenson, will my social life to Ed Sailer.

I, Betty Thompson, being of sound mind and body, leave.

I, Sharon Tussey, will my nickname "Birdie" to Dolores Brislin.

Play-Casting Proves Headache For Director

Ordinarily, casting a play is no real problem for Sister M. Barbara, C.D.P., senior play director, but this year's play cost Sister no little headache when she began to search about for someone to play the title role. Naturally, no Senior could play the role of the Little Dog though 'tis rumored that David Dickenson tried out for it. Actually, David was 'trying-out' by proxy for his dog, Otto, who had his canine heart set on the role.

Upon David's word of Otto's ability as an actor, he was cast in the role. On Saturday, May 23, Otto met an untimely death in a motorcycle accident. Sister affirms that while glandular fever once laid low a young star who was playing the title role in her favorite play, "Don't Take My Penny," this is the first time that death has robbed her of a star.

After a proper time of condolence for Otto, Sharon Tussey was sure that CoCo could play the role. At a special rehearsal for his benefit on a free-day, May 4, CoCo was completely uncooperative by refusing to walk along the sidewalk while Sharon was on stage. Now, everyone knows that Sister demands cooperation so CoCo was out. This time, Betty Dudley, felt that Spot was a born actress and brought her down for the dress rehearsal on May 10.

College Campuses Call Class Of '60

This year's grads, ever-noted for high scholastic achievement, evidently intend to continue that reputation in institutes of higher learning, this reporter has found out. Every member of the class intends to enter college or training schools come September.

J. D. Browne and Jim Stephenson are going to colleges in the South to further their education and their athletic careers. J. D. hopes to pitch another no-hitter for Duke University, no less, and Jim hopes to keep rebounding at Centenary, or University of Virginia.

In a few years Matt Schwab will add an M. D. to his name after he finishes at the University of Louisville Medical School.

Joe Hood, armed with the ARMCO Community Scholarship, would like to settle with relatives in Arizona and study chemical engineering at the University of Arizona.

Greater Cincinnati will be honored with the presence of David Dickenson at the University of Cincinnati studying law, and Buzzy Smith, Helen Mele, and Carolyn Krell at Villa Madonna in Covington.

In order not to deprive the city of Ashland of all of its promising intellectuals, Kelsey McCullough, Sharon Tuussey, and Betty Thompson talk about staying home and cracking the books at University of Kentucky, Ashland Center.

Betty Dudley will also keep the home-town talent home when she goes in training at King's Daughters' School of Nursing.

We've all known for years what Steve Fox's great dream is, and we hope that he realizes it.

Don Frailie has not notified any university that he will honor it with his presence, but we know they're all holding their breath.

Likewise, Roger Hensley is looking over the field before gracing some campus with his various and sundry talents. After the senior play, we understand he intends majoring in ornithology.

A Journalist's Farewell

Here's what we've learned from journalism:

* * * *

Kelsey McCullough has learned there is something called STYMIE BOLD (he still doesn't know what it is).

* * * *

We've all learned the hard way that you can't print what you hear. For example, last issue we heard that John Compton had done some fool thing in Geometry class. We printed it. Immediately hitherto - bashful Bobby Blair insisted he was the one who made the discovery.

* * * *

Herman and Bernie Appledorn have learned that we don't always mean what we type and we don't always type what we mean.

* * * *

Sr. M. Barbara has learned that the only way to get all the copy, headlines, and captions in one place at one time is to keep all the staff in one room at one time (the end doesn't justify the means).

* * * *

Roger Hensley, Betty Dudley, and a few others have learned that mistakes don't show up in proofreading, but always do in the finished copy.

* * * *

We've all learned that it's not as easy as it looks, but we'll stick our necks out and try it again, any time.

* * * *
