

ASHLAND AREA PHOTOGRAPHS FROM THE
JOHN SHOUSE MARTIN
PHOTOGRAPH COLLECTION

This photograph collection belonged to John Shouse Martin [b. 1880, d. 1962; s/o Henry Foster Martin]. John Shouse Martin and his wife Nellie Kautz Martin along with three sons, Henry Kautz Martin, Walter P. Martin, and Frederick Martin lived in Ashland, KY for many years.

John Shouse Martin was a salesman for some time with Indian Refining Company and a member of Ashlands Chapter United Commercial Travelers. They resided on Newman Street and in the early 40's on Gartrell Avenue. John and Nellie loved to travel and took many camping trips. John and Nellie later moved to Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio. Both John and Nellie are buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Ashland, KY.

The collection is now [2001] in possession of granddaughter, Barbara Martin Strosnider [d/o Walter P. Martin] Both she and great granddaughter Teresa Martin Klaiber [gd/o of Henry Kautz Martin] have selected photographs that are of historic value to the area to place in the Boyd County Library, Minnie Crawford Winder room for the exclusive use of researchers.

This material is copyright protected. Any use of photographs from this collection should utilize the following citation:

Title of photograph John Shouse Martin Collection, Boyd County Public Library, Minnie Crawford Winder Room, Ashland, KY date of copy