XMAS PARTIES AND ASSEMBLY TODAY AT 1:30

A Christmas program will be presented today at 1:30 in assembly by students of Mrs. Elkins' Home Economics classes and a chorus under the direction of Miss Whitehurst.

The chorus will sing "Songs of Christmas" which was presented at the December meeting of Coles P. T. A. last week. Mrs. Elkins' students will present a style show of "Teen Togs" which they have made. The eighth grade girls will model simple cotton dresses and the ninth graders will model jumpers or skirts and jerkins.

If time permits, the Builders will say "Merry Christmas" to Koles Kids in a rather unique way!

After the assembly students will return to their homeroom for Christmas parties.

BUILDERS WILL COLLECT BASKETS 4th PERIOD

Builders request that all homerooms have their Christmas baskets for Ramey Home ready at the beginning of the fourth period today. The boys will pick them up at this time and take them to the cafeteria where they will be judged by Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Kersey, Mrs. Hopkins, and Mrs. Welch.

The winning homerooms will be announced and prizes awarded in Assembly.

READ "LISTEN TO THE TEACHER" ON PAGE 6.

KOLES KIDS ALL SET FOR NEW YEARS EVE PARTY

Whether it's to be formal or semi-formal is still being left to you, girls. Don't stay away because you don't have a formal. Your best bib and tucker is fine. Of course "it" is the Band Parents' big New Year's Eve Party!

Since this is the last dance of Leap Year, it will be backwards.

An exciting floorshow, consisting of talent from the band will highlight the evening's entertainment.

Hats, noise makers and confetti will be sold by the Band Parents!

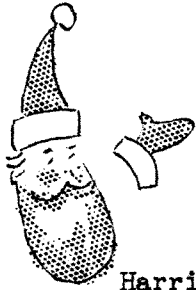

The admission is 25 cents and the time is from 8 to 12:10.

PROGRESSIVES TO GIVE $5 PRIZE TODAY

A prize of $5 will be awarded today in assembly to the room contributing the most money to the Progressive Club's Christmas Fund. During the past two weeks containers have been in all homerooms and the sheet has been passed in assembly and at basketball games. This will be done again today. The boys goal is $50. Will you help them reach it?

Together with the Putnam Progressive and the Ro Club of Senior High, the members of the Coles Progressive Club were guests of their Rotarian sponsors at a Christmas party December 17 in the Henry Clay ballroom.

 Some one who deserves our Clarion Rose.
 This certain girl, she makes all A's.
 Her work on the Mimeoscope deserves all our yeas.
 On the staff she ranks on top.
 Even works in her spare time and doesn't stop.
 She likes all her teachers like good kids do--
 Her hobby is horses-like some of you.
 Roberta Williams is the one we mean.
 So come up, Roberta, we think you're keen!

Xmas Thoughts

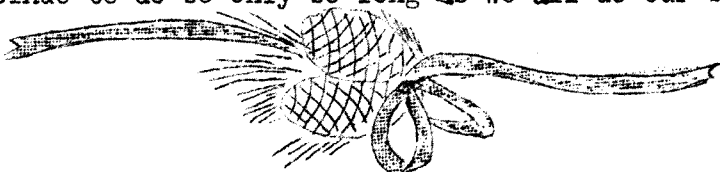

Santa Claus and his elves are busy in their workshop getting ready for Christmas. There is a great hub-bub, but everyone is happy because he is doing something which will make someone else happy. Have you made your teachers happy by behaving in assemblies and trying to be Good Citizens? If you have, you gave them the best Christmas gift any teacher could want!

** **** ** **** ** **** **

(Just about any day during the first six weeks of school) A visitor named Mr. X has come to school to talk to Teacher. It's a business call about the school. Just inside the door the visitor sees groups of boys and girls crowded around the office and the bulletin board. A bell rings at this moment and everyone starts running, pushing, and yelling--scattering in all directions. Before Mr. X reaches his destination, a room on second floor, he has been knocked and banged practically all over the hall from one side to another! A few (and very, very few!) Koles Kids embarrassed at the behavior and concerned for Mr. X's life, "beg his pardon" and try to "run interference", but the last words spoken by the visitor as he finally leaves the school a few minutes later are--"Never again!"

But Mr. X is not allowed to keep this vow! Last week he was called back on very important business! This time expecting the same knocks and bangs, he borrows his son's football uniform! When he enters, the hall, however, is in order. The bell rings, no yelling, no knocks, and bangs--Everyone seems to be going someplace with a purpose. Mr. X wonders at this miracle--Then he attends assembly, and he understands--Coles has a Citizenship program!

Editors Note: Characters in this Editorial are purely fictitious--and conditions "Before" and "After" are exaggerated - but we do have a fine Citizenship program, and it is improving our school, and it will continue to do so only so long as we all do our best.

This month our Clarion Rose will go
 To a deserving girl that you all know.
 In personality and ability she rates tops,
 On the job she never stops,
 As a mimeoscope artist she really is fine,
 To it she devotes most of her time.
 In her grades she ranks very high.
 Never a "trick" passes her by!
 I know that you agree with me
 That Roberta Williams our choice should be!

** *** **

This time our Rose goes to a cute little girl
 With bright blue eyes and short blond curls.
 On the Clarion she works very hard every day,
 But she knows how to laugh and to play!
 Boys all stop and look when she walks down the hall,

BRONCOS DEFEAT WURLAND YEA COLES 29-9

The Coles Broncos opened their Basketball season by defeating Wurtland 29-9 before a packed gym, Tuesday, December 9.

Both teams got off to a slow start with Coles scoring only two points on foul shots in the first quarter, Wurtland scoring 3.

In the second quarter neither team warmed up much and the half ended 11-7.

In the third quarter a greatly aroused Coles team came out and pulled away from their opponents to win 29-9.

High point man was Vernon Conley with nine, followed by J. Estep with 6.

COLES BOWS TO GREENUP 40-38

Coach Paul Thompson's Broncos chalked up their first loss of the season 40-38, Thursday, December 12, at Greenup.

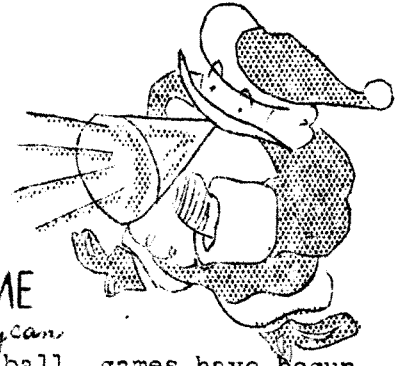

Coles led at the end of the first quarter 8-7 but lost the lead and tailed 23-13 at the half.

The high point man for Coles was J. B. Leighow with 13 followed by Brown with 10.

The high point man for Greenup was Bands with 31 points.

HEY BOB!

In sixth period when Miss Frazier calls "Bob" three boys are ready to be of service to her. The reason is that three of the four boys who work on the Clarion that period have the name "Bob". They are Bob McCann, Bob Ratliff, and Bob Rice. Recently another boy temporarily joined their number and, believe it or not his name was Bob Vanhorne!

PLAY THE GAME

by Isabella Lycam

Coles' basket ball games have begun,
And we are having a lot of fun,
But if we boo the other team,
Folks will say we're not so "keen"!
Instead of booing let's yell and scream
For our own Coles' Bronco team!
Let's help them keep up their fight and vim

So that all their games they will win!
You know, we don't really have to boo;
If we don't folks will say to me and you,
"You go to Coles? Aren't you proud of your name?"
"You Coles Kids really know how to play a great game!"

JUNIOR RED CROSS

The Junior Red Cross membership campaign ended Tuesday, December 2 with all the rooms 100 percent except Mrs. Rice's. However, because Miss Daniel's, Miss Frazier's, Miss Graber's, and Mrs. Pennington's rooms went over their quota which made up for the room that did not raise its quota, the building rates a 100 percent membership.

Mrs. Pennington's homeroom was the first room to reach a 100 percent, but Miss Daniel's room brought in the most money which was $5.32.

The total number of members was 622 and the total money collected was $42.48.

CONSERVATION CLUB

The Conservation Club is doing business as usual.

Membership to the club is still open, and Mr. Rice, the sponsor urges all boys who, for a small fee, would like to attend a Summer Camp, to join.

The Club has a basketball team in the Y-League, and looks forward to many interesting activities during the year, including a rifle team.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Miss Delores Graber, faculty sponsor of the Dramatic Club, reports that rehearsals are underway for the January P. T. A. meeting.

The following officers were elected at the November meeting: Ruth Green, president; Vernon Brown, vice-president; Janet Smith, recording secretary; Donna Poley, reporter; Gerald Roberts, sergeant-at-arms; Roberta Williams, treasurer.

GIRL SCOUTS

Badges and World Pins were awarded in the December meeting of Girl Scout Troup 32. All of the girls who had earned badges, received them, and all members received the World Pin. Flag ceremonies and refreshments completed the program.

BUILDERS

"Fill beautiful Christmas baskets with canned food for the Ramey Home and win for yourselves a prize and the Happiest Christmas you've ever had," is the December slogan of the Builders.

** *** ** *** **

The Builders opened their basket ball season by walloping the Conservation Club 38-12. Keith Powell assisted by Paul Welch, (both boys are former Builders) is coaching the Builders this year.

** *** ** *** **

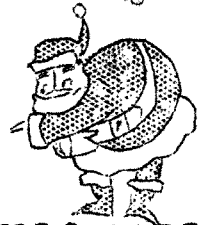

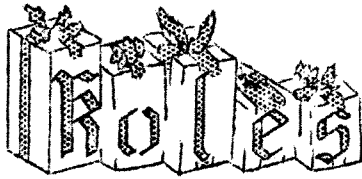

Builders regret the loss of one of their members, Jackie Lemaster, who has had to quit school because of ill health and they are making him an honorary member and plan to keep him informed of club activities.

** *** ** *** **

Builders had their luncheon meeting on Tuesday of this week. Joe Wonn and Don Kouns entertained with a musical reading, "The Night Before Christmas."

LATIN CLUB

Latin Club members have received their J. C. L. (Junior Classical League) pins. . . .Everybody's glad "Christus Parvulus" is over for another year, but the "thrill" of it lingers on. . . . Coming up, a party and caroling tonight- "Io Saturnalia!"

LIBRARY NOTES

Mrs. Davenport reports several new books have been put on the shelves in the past few days. Among them are:

- "Saint Santa Claus"
- "Lost Dog Jerry"
- "Rustlers on the High Range"
- "Lasso Your Heart"

Two of the outstanding books in the Parent-Teacher donation were "Anna and the King of Siam" and Fulton Oursler's "Father Flanagan of Boys' Town."

** *** ** *** ** *** **

Mrs. Davenport says that Koles Kids seem to be slipping a little in their manners toward books. Some books have been coming in with badly torn jackets. This necessitates mending, which keeps the librarian so busy she can't get to work on the new books.

** *** ** *** ** *** **

Two new librarians were added to the library staff. They are Rebelah Catron and Herman Rupert.

** *** ** *** ** *** **

The library staff enjoyed a Christmas party this week.

** *** ** *** ** *** **

The library staff would like to take this opportunity to wish the students and faculty a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

NOTES

The Chorus under the direction of Miss Fredica Whitehurst and accompanied by Miss Thora Cooksey presented a program, "Songs of Christmas", at Coles F. T. A. Thursday, December 11, in the auditorium.

Soloists on the program were Priscilla McGuire, Linda Bates, Sara Davis, Sue Penick, and Pherbia Mathis.

After the program and business session a Christmas tea was served by the eighth grade homeroom mothers in the cafeteria.

ASSEMBLIES-MRS. RICE

Mrs. Rice's assembly program, November 26 starred Mrs. Rice, a talented accordionist, "McCann and Layne", those two spectacular skaters, and the "Globe Trotters" and "Broncos" playing a hilarious game of basketball.

Other headliners on the program were: Norma Gay Smith and Phyllis Reliford reading a Thanksgiving story, and Lorinda Sparks, Judith Leslie, Anne Justice, Joyce Hughes, Billy Pennington, Morten Estep, and Ronnie Evans doing imitations of their teachers. Lorinda also sang "A Guy Is A Guy" and Phyllis did a pantomime to records.

MR. RICE

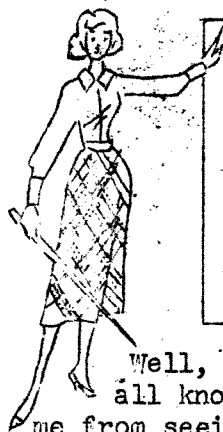

A Communist scene telling Koles Kids what was going on behind the Iron Curtain was presented on Mr. Rice's homeroom assembly program, December 3. Charlotte Dameron with the assistance of Joyce Harris and Pam Edwards, was moderator. Those taking part in the skit were Mary Owsley, teacher; Joe Lyttleton, inspector; Tim Taylor, first student; Woodrow Harris, second student, and other students in Mr. Rice's homeroom.

Other numbers on the program were piano solos by Mary Owsley and Joe Wonn, a solo dance by Jeanette Murphy, and a parody on the T.V. show "You Bet YOUR Life" with John Howard as Groucho Smarx assisted by David Blankenship. Contestants in the skit were Jayne Cox, Ray Keyser, Don Young, and Lois Collins.

Donna Polley acted as mistress of ceremonies and Sue Ross read the Bible.

MRS. SALYERS

More new talent was discovered on the assembly program given by Mrs. Salyers homeroom December 10. Jimmie Power's imitations and Kenneth Perkins' singing have all the Koles Kids talking. Others on the program were Nan O'Hara, Diana Lane, Sara Lemon, Patty Davis, Judy Cordial, Mary Shingleton, Wesley Jones, Artie Wheeler, Bill Reffet, Tom Harris, J. Twinam, Clifford McRary, Alfred Perkins, and Larry Fletcher, MC.

LISTEN TO THE TEACHER

By Miss Gayer

Do you ever wonder what your teachers think about you or how you look from the other side of the desk?

Well, I for one love you and you all know it--but---that doesn't keep me from seeing some of the little annoying things you do.

Now, see if you can recognize yourself.

In every class there is a boy or girl who comes without a notebook and hopefully asks to go to the locker and get it.

There is also the boy or girl who "visits" until I start to teach and then saunters to the pencil sharpener just as I get the attention of the rest of the group.

A few of you have that "I'm against it, no matter what it is, I don't want to do nuthin'," attitude. If you are against it and have a good reason or if you are against it and have a better idea, O. K., if not, then I'm against you for being against it--whatever it is.

I love to see girls look and act like girls. Deliver me from the blue jeans girl who comes into my room, flops into a seat and hikes her heels over her head. Being feminine doesn't mean you have to swoon and flutter your eyelashes, but it does mean clean, neat hair that doesn't have to be hidden under a scarf all day and just ask any boy if he prefers you in blue jeans or a sweater and skirt.

Save me from the pupil who daily faces me either placidly chewing gum or walloping it around in a frenzy that ends in peering at me through a big bubble that covers his face.

Ask any teacher how she feels when she has "given her all" and after the

BOOK NOOK

THE CHESTRY OAK
by Kate Sereby
by Jennie East

The Chestry Oak is about Micheal, Prince of Chestry Valley, whose father turns Nazi spy during the war. Young Micheal's wish is for one day to be just a plain boy, and ride the black stallion of Chestry Valley.

Young Michael carries an acorn all the way from his castle in Chestry Valley to the warm soil of the Hudson Valley from where he makes a new home after the war.

It is difficult to decide which are the most unforgettable: the scenes in Hungary, Micheal's proud, valiant father and his beloved Nana, or the friendly GI and his family in America who take Micheal to their hearts and make him their own.

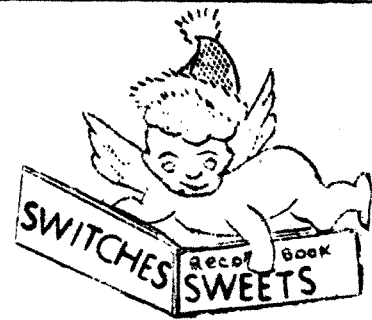

Perhaps the most compelling character of all is Midnight, the dancing, black stallion, full of fire and beauty, and trained to perform before princes.

BLACK STALLION'S FILLY
by Walter Farley
by David Dixon

Black Stallion's Filly was written by one of this country's most popular authors of horse stories, Walter Farley. It tells of Henry Bailey, the trainer of Hopeful Farm, who bought a filly called Black Minx. And he with Alec Ramsey trained and entered her in the Kentucky Derby. If you like horse stories, you'll find this one of the best.

BE A PRIVATE EYE

Let's play detective! Do you know how to play it? When someone is recognized as a good citizen in assembly, and you do not think he has been a good citizen, instead of laughing at him, play detective! Follow him! Watch him! See if he is being a good citizen. If he is, then you know his homeroom has made a wise selection. If he has not been a good citizen, tell his fellow classmates to play detective, too. Playing detective is more fun than laughing at someone. Try it!

KOLES KIDS??

Most Koles Kids think of Esther D'Annibelle as the girl that could dance through life, and that's just about right because Esther says that's the thing she really loves to do. Although she's best known by her toe dancing, Esther is also good at acrobatics, tap, and ballet.

In addition to dancing, she also enjoys bicycle riding and listening to good dance music. She says bicycle riding strengthens her leg muscles and keeps her in good shape for dancing. Looks as if everything Esther does, is closely related to her dancing!

Although she's in Mrs. Guyn's home-room, she's on just about every assembly program---dancing, singing, or accompanying someone on the piano. Her talents as well as her blond hair, and sparkling blue eyes make Pherbia Ann Mathis a well know Koles Kid.

I'm sure you have seen a neat little red head in Mr. Rice's homeroom lately. She's Belle Wrenn who came to Coles from Indiana. We hear she has her big blue-green eyes on Boford McPeek. . . .

** *** ** **** ** **** **

Jimmy Powers, who did various imitations on Mrs. Salyer's assembly program, is no novice at "making faces" and throwing his voice. In grade school Jimmy was a favorite entertainer. His imitations of members of the faculty were especially clever. Jimmy says his ambition is to be another Edgar Bergen.

But did you know that he enjoys singing classical music better than the romantic ballads which have made him so popular? However, Kenneth admits he would like to be P. F. C. Eddie Fisher's double!

Christmas

Coles Journalism Class
December 19, 1952

Dear Santa Claus ,

I'm writing this letter from the Journalism Classes to you, Please, Santa, bring the gifts we ask for, like you always do. We have been good, well, "pretty" good we'll say, So won't you fill our stockings full for Christmas day? Bring me, Charlotte Damron, a good pair of ear plugs so when Mr. Mathis whistles it won't hurt my ears.

Mary Owsley wishes you and Mrs. Claus a very merry Christmas and says if it wouldn't be too much trouble, to put a bowl full of Guppies (fish) under her Christmas tree.

Linda Jarvis wants a teddy bear so she won't feel so lonely when she goes to bed.

Virginia East would like a pair of red flannel "undies", please.

Mary Stewart says she'd love to have a little itsy, bitsy pink teddy bear.

Jayne Cox wants that real cute, tall, dark haired sophomore at Ashland High. She said you'd know the one!

Pam Edwards yearns for a pinball machine in the cafeteria.

Charlotte Dean says please bring her lots and lots of records.

Clifford McRary is a kind little fellow who wants the war to end so we all can have a Merry Christmas.

Jerry Twinam would like to have an electric football game.

Sharon Pruitt isn't asking for much--just a yellow Cadillac convertible with a chauffeur!

Connie Williams wants a pair of white shoeskates.

Sue Ross says you'll really rate with her if you bring her a horse farm complete with horses.

James Cooksey gives you a choice--either bring a date with Ruth Ellen Green or one with Yvonne DeCarlo!

Miriam McKenzie says a date with John Derek, please!

Donna Polley isn't quite so modest--she wants the guy himself (J. D.) under her tree! She insists she's been a very, very good little girl!

Isabella Lycan doesn't spell or write very well but here's the way it looked in her letter: "a litele dol kuz i ben gud!"

Robert Wilcox makes a strange request--a new pair of dice!
